ADRIENNE GAITHER

HOW I GOT OVER

Transformer's 15th Annual DC Artist Solo Exhibition

JANUARY 13 - FEBRUARY 24, 2018

Opening Reception: Saturday, January 13, 6 - 8pm

Artist Talk: Saturday, February 3, 2pm

HOW I GOT OVER presents a new body of paintings and collage works examining shape and color in relation to the phases of trauma recovery. Gaither expresses the impact of trauma and visualizes what it means to become 'whole' again while addressing the parallels between recovery and painting as time based processes.

ADRIENNE GAITHER (b.1987)

is a visual artist whose work explores color and shape to recompose various ways of communicating an idea. Her works can be conceptual and narrative, serious and playful, and are distinctly constructed with influences of West African Patternmaking, Suprematism, Constructivism, Minimalism, the Bauhaus, and Abstraction.
