VIDEYO!

VIDEYO! is an artistic action/reaction to the intimately lit interior of popular pizza restaurant and after school/work hangout Comet Ping Pong. A home for after art opening celebrations, a venue to see bands, and a meeting place for the fun lovers of DC, VIDEYO! accents Comet's great vibe and good times, with participating artists creating video art interaction for Comet visitors and customers awaiting their pizza pies or the next chance to slam ping pong balls in their opponents face. Confronting the audience with larger than life projected imagery, narrating with frame by frame image alteration, captivating with comedic collages, and hypnotizing with vibrant montages- VIDEYO! showcases a variety of video art work that reflect how the creative uses of this medium are as infinite as its technological advancements.
