

STICKY ENTANGLEMENTS

Beth Yashnyk & Fanni Somogyi

May 6 - June 17, 2023

Sticky Entanglements at Transformer features multi-media works by Beth Yashnyk and Fanni Somogyi, who explore glitch as a point of metamorphosis. The artists dissect, fragment, question, and reassemble human and non-human bodies into new hybrid forms to push the boundaries of gender and life itself. They take note of how interactions with others affect and contaminate one's identity. The narrative that develops between the sculptures, animations, and paintings offer paths to speculative ideas of relationships to one's self and to others.

Exhibition Programming

3D Collage for Kids Workshop

Sat. June 3, 2023, 2 - 5 PM, Transformer

In this 3D Collage for Kids workshop, young learners (and those of all ages) are invited to explore methods of collaging through sculptural materials. Encouraging imaginative approaches to create using clay, wire, and pipe cleaner, we will take inspiration from figures and natural elements. All participants will be able to take home vivid and dynamic forms.
